

KILBURN ENGINEERING LTD.

.PLOT No 6, MIDC INDUSTRIAL AREA, SARAVALI, KALYAN BHIWANDI ROAD, THANE 421 311,
MAHARASHTRA, INDIA

HEALTH, SAFETY & ENVIRONMENT POLICY (HSE POLICY)

Kilburn Engineering Limited (KEL) is in the business of Design, Development, Engineering, Fabrication, Supply, Supervision of Erection and Commissioning and Servicing of Industrial Drying Systems and other critically customized Equipment for diverse process industries namely, Chemical, Food, Process, Fertilizer, Cement, Petrochemical, Oil, Gas, Refinery, Offshore, Pollution Control and allied Industries

KEL is committed to ensure all legal and ethical compliances laid by Government with respect to Health, Safety and Environment.

KEL recognizes and discharges its responsibilities as a responsible employer for sound Health & Safety management of its employees, contractors and other persons who may be affected directly and indirectly by any of its activities..

Management of Health, Safety and Environment is the primary objective of KEL. It has reasonably good procedures & systems of risk identification, inspection, monitoring audit and risk mitigation for ensuring the implementation of acceptable standards.

KEL is a responsible Company for promoting environmental care and does comply with the applicable regulations. KEL is committed for conservation of energy & material resources and preventing pollution through its operations.

KEL is committed to encouraging employees, suppliers, contractors & customers for their participation in all safety matters and safety culture under all conditions which appear unhealthy, hazardous or dangerous.

KEL Management is committed to resolve all issues keeping in view the highest possible Health, Safety and Environment standards through awareness, training and motivating all employees, contractors and other stakeholders by providing the necessary resources.

Kalyan, Thane 421311

MAY 30, 2022

(RANJIT LALA)

Managing Director